The Connétable explained that the Seymour Inn was a well-established and well-known public house and that this is a License transfer. It is currently held in the name of AVJ Holdings Limited, and the Liberation Group will be taking it back in house under the name La Rocque Inn (Jersey) Limited. The Connétable was in possession of the architect's report, environment report and the Fire report.

The Connétable asked if there were any comments or objections? There were none raised. Therefore, the Connétable asked if someone would like to propose this transfer. Paul Kempster proposed the transfer and Beth Moody seconded. They both being registered electors in the Parish the Connétable said he would recommend the application to transfer to the licencing bench.

In summing up the Connétable wished both businesses luck with their ventures and every success.

The meeting closed at 7.36pm
